Software Quality Engineer (Manual)

We are a leading worldwide provider of navigation devices and wearable technology, with a focus on developing, designing and supporting superior products.

As an engineering and technology company, we have a keen focus on recruiting talent in the fields that support Garmin business and products.

Our benefits are designed to lead an evolving marketplace, support innovation and encourage a healthy balance between work and life. They allow our associates to make their own decisions about their wellbeing and future and consistently rank Garmin as a top tier benefits provider when compared to other high-tech employers.

Summary of the role:

Your role will be to write and execute manual test cases for Garmin application – Active Captain APP

In this role, you will be responsible of:

1. Writing and executing Manual Test Cases for Active Captain APP
2. Working together with the development team and provide constant feedback
3. Reporting on the performed tasks

We are looking for a person with the following skills and knowledge:

1. Must demonstrate mobile testing knowledge
2. Must demonstrate proficiency and possess experience necessary to test software products
3. Has experience with Agile
4. Has experience with a bug tracker system (like JIRA)
5. Can document, troubleshoot and isolate problems encountered during testing
6. Has strong and effective verbal, written, and interpersonal communication skills
7. Advanced English

Desirable qualifications and background include:

- BSc in Computer Science, IT or similar
- At least 4 years of experience of manual/ mobile testing

Would be a plus:

- ISTQB Foundation certification